

MEETING AGENDA

Human Trafficking, Modern Slavery:
Exploring future spectrum
and protection of survivors.

When: June 5, 2018

Time: 13h00 to 16h30

Where: Chulalongkorn University

Organizer(s): The Asian Research Center for Migration (ARCM) at the Institute of Asian Studies, Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok, Thailand.

Key Panelists / Professor Dr. David Cohen; Stanford University, U.S.A.

Area of interest: Professor Dr. Monti Datta; Richmond University, U.S.A.

Ms. Matsuno Ayaka; Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)

Dr. Ratchada Jayagupta; Thailand Representative to the ACWC on Women's Rights, and a Senior researcher and lecturer, ARCM, Institute of Asian Studies, Chulalongkorn University

Moderator: Dr. Ratchada Jayagupta

Venue: 12th Floor, Alumni Conference Room, Political Science Building 3, Faculty of Political Science, Chulalongkorn University.

13h00 – 13h15	Registration Opening session by Professor Emeritus Dr. Supang Chantavanich
13h15-13h45	Professor Dr. David Cohen “Human Trafficking issue: current situation and possible future spectrum”
13h45-14h15	Ms. Matsuno Ayaka and Dr. Ratchada Jayagupta “Social Reintegration of Thai Survivors”
14h15 – 14h45	Coffee / Tea Break
14h45-15h15	Professor Dr. Monti Datta “Intersection of Slavery and Conflict”
15h15-16h15	Reflection / Discussion
16h15-16h30	Closing session by Assistant Professor Naruemon Thabchumpol, Director of ARCM, Chulalongkorn University

Additional Instructions:

Please register at <http://gg.gg/human-trafficking-issue2018>