

Curriculum Vitae

Khanidtha Kanthavichai

.....

1. Biography

Current Position: Researcher
Specialization: Mekong Studies

2. Educational Background

2007 : M.A. in Interdisciplinary Program, Human and Social Development, Graduate School, Chulalongkorn University, 2008
2001 : B.A. (Anthropology) (second class honor) Faculty of Archaeology, Silpakorn University

3. Research

- Researcher in “Business of Thai Private Sector and Impact to Thai-Laos Relations after changing the battle to trade field Policy” (on going)
- Coordinator in “A Research Project for the Formulation of International Energy Strategy and Action Plans” (2012)
- Coordinator in “Supporting Thailand’s Investment in Neighboring” Countries (1st year)” (2010-2011)
- Associate researcher in “Perceptions and understanding of Neighboring Countries’ Stakeholders toward Thailand” (2010-2011)
- Cooperation Strategies in education area between Thailand and neighboring countries, 2008
- Thematic in Bachelor Degree “Economic and Social Adaptation of Mien Women in Washington, USA”
- Thematic in Master Degree “Potential and Public Participant of the local community in the Development Plan Related to Friendship Bridge 2”

4. Books, Articles etc.,

1. The Mega Development Project in the Mekong Sub-region: voice from people. In Asina Review (in Thai) 2012/2.
2. “Perceptions of Laos toward Thai, Not identify who the “rival” is but never forgotten. (in Thai) Bangkokbiznew, 29 January 2009
3. “There’s something’s” in “Nothing much” from Sabaydee Luang Prabang. (In Thai) Matichon 7 July 2008

5. Others

Present Paper

- Presented Paper “Discourse on Naga and Friendship Bridge II : Invasion of Development and Mysterious Future” the 1st Lower Mekong Sub-region University Network Conference 2007, Mahasarakham University

6. Editor

- Co-editor, “Shan-and Beyond”. Institute of Asian Studies, Chulalongkorn University, 2011
- Co-editor, “ The Mon Over Two Millennia Monuments, Manuscripts, Movements”. Institute of Asian Studies, Chulalongkorn University, 2009