

Notes to Contributors of Asian Review

1. Asian Review welcomes submission of articles dealing with various aspects of Asia including political, economic, social, cultural, and foreign affairs. All contributions are subject to a fully anonymous reviewing process. We accept manuscripts for review all year round.
2. Articles submitted to Asian Review should not have been previously published elsewhere and should not be under review for publication in other journals. Submitted manuscripts will not be returned to the author. Articles in Asian Review represent neither the views of the Institute of Asian Studies nor those of the editors. Responsibility for opinions expressed and the accuracy of facts published in articles and book reviews rests solely with the individual authors.
3. Manuscripts must be typed in English and should not exceed 6,000 words (including references). It is requested to include an abstract of around 150 words with a list of no more than 6 keywords, and a short bio-data of 3-5 lines. Book reviews should be limited to 800-1000 words.
4. Manuscripts should be sent on document file, in Microsoft Word format, accompanied by a printout or pdf file, and by a letter giving the author's name, affiliation and contact details. As Asian Review engages in double-blind reviews, authors' names should be left off of the main text of their article. The entire document should be double-spaced and use 12-point Times New Roman font. Margins on all sides should be 1 inch (2.54 cm). Tables, figures, maps, and photos should be saved in separate files and not embedded in the text. All images should include captions and sources.
5. Authors whose first language is not English should have their English-language manuscripts checked by a native speaker before submission.
6. Referencing should follow the author-date method of in-text citation, giving the author's surname, year of publication and page number(s) where relevant, for example, (Rudolph 2000, 13). A complete reference should appear at the end of the article. Footnotes are used only for adding useful information, not for references. Examples showing the system of citation are as follows:

According to Rudolph (2000), ...

Rudolph (2000) stated that "....." (13).

Johnson's study (cited in Rudolph 2000) found that ....
